PUBLISHED BY THE SUN-HERALD CORPORATION, 280 BROADWAY: TELEPHONE, WORTH 10,000.

By Mail, Postpaid. Vear. Months. Month.
DAILY & SUNDAY. $12.00
DAILY only. 10.00
SUNDAY only. 4.00
SUNDAY only. 4.00
SUNDAY only. Canada. 6.00
S.25
SERVING OF SUNDAY ONLY. CANADAY ONLY. 5.55 FOREIGN RATES.

Tel. 9098 Wadsworth. Open until 10 P. M. BO 10 P. A., SURGAYS, 2 P. A. 10 BEOOKLYN OPPICES—24 COURT ST. Tel. Main 5498. Open until 10 P. M. EAGLE BULLING, 305 WASHINGTON ST. Tel. 1100 Main. BEONX OPPICES—518 WILLES AVE., AT 148 PR ST. Tel. 0666 Melrose. Open until 16 P. M. Principal American and Foreign Bureaus. WASHINGTON—The Munsey Building. PHICAGO—208 South La Sallo St. (ANTON—40-43 Fleet St. ARIS—49 Avenue de l'Opera, 38 Rus du couvre.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 4, 1931.

Justice on the Isthmus.

Secretary Hughes's final note to Panama regarding the Costa Rican neighborhood. territory held by the former state is an explicit command. Either the imtion "may be requisite."

This closes the matter to all intents and purposes, because, what- compared with pre-war prices. ever Panama does or does not do, the Costa Rica and it will stay there. for this righteous settlement.

HARDING and President Wilson. Pan- and the wear and tear on the cars? ama never had the slightest excuse That's where the economic shoe ama to commit a wrong against such bread. a neighbor when that neighbor could not effectively strike back.

It was the United States, in truth, which forbade Costa Rica to go to war over the question, as it also enjoined upon Panama a peaceful determination of the issue. And it is upholder of the Monroe Doctrine, but as the defender of right in New World affairs, which does justice to taught. Reducing the "detail of the across the Baltic Sea. earlier epochs" ought to help the pu- It was the purpose of Part VIII., pll, now that the last seven years Annex III., of the Trenty of Verasked to carry.

association is the elimination of some the required ships to the Entente dates. Every child is and has been there remained to Germany only fed up on dates. The boy at school about 100,000 tons of ocean going used to have to know when ETHEL- merchant vessels. WOLF SUcceeded EGRET and ETHEL- Despite the destructive work of RED took ETHELDOLD'S regal job. And German submarines the total world then that tenth century procession of merchant tonnage, which had been EDMUND, EDRED, EDWY, EDGAR, ED- about 43,600,000 gross tons in 1913. WARD, ETHELRED and back to EDMUND had reached 45,700,000 tons by the again! The lad was rather pleased middle of 1919, when German delivwhen William came to conquer a eries under the treaty began. Great race that was so fond of its Es. But Britain still maintained her place as the Conqueror put his brand on child the leading maritime Power with warding handsomely services perfor though grown men forget their tonnage, but Germany's position as ture of the State of New York! telephone numbers and the name of second maritime Power with a pre-Norman conquest was 1066. What with about 22 per cent. it meant to England they have for- It was assumed that not only had so soft they never knew. Ten sixty- seas, and that plentiful world ton. April 30 compiled by the National six conquered a memory cell and nage would keep it out of the runholds it against all comers ning and the end of the Revolution- many's disposal their surplus tonnage. ary War, but it is not necessary to In his book attacking the Treaty of sponding period of 1920, are apparmemorize any date within that Versailles for its drastic economic ently typical of the mortality result Lexington and Yorktown which does English financial adviser at the peace not have to be memorized. It is ab- conference, said: sorbed by American infants with their milk and firecrackers. No native can remember when he first learned that there was a Fourth of July. As for memorizing it, a man might as well try to memorize his heart.

History, the principals say, should treat of the social environment of man "with less stress on the dates of events." True: if we could forget A. D. 1066 and learn just what Will-TAM had for supper after the battle of Hastings and how it was cooked the world would be happier. Everybody knows what happened on October 12, 1492; but not all the girl pupils understand that it was woman's vanity which drove men to find easy routes to the land of silks and perfumes. It should be easy to reform our

NEW YORK HERALD PRESCOTT and MOTLEY, FISKE and 100,000 tons remaining of her mertaken up too many history pages-but vessels close to 1,000,000 gross tons. efforts will have to surgenerating h he let the young reader know what the human side of the great men and 1.50 the great side of the little ones.

We observe that one or two

We observe that one or two brief All checks, money orders, &c., to be made histories of the world have been writ-Branch Offices for receipt of advertisements and sale of papers:
PRINCIPAL UPTOWN OFFICE—BROADWAY AND "Outline." These books make an honest effort to describe the great proceslight up). Tel. Chelsea 4002. est effort to describe the great processing. Tel. 204 Morningside. Open following by Morningside. Open following by Morningside. jellyfish and is now passing Babe RUTH. They leave out wars and dates SINTERNATH St. OFFICE-CORNER 1STH St. AND SINTERNATH AVE.—Tel. Chelsea 4000.

SOURCEATH AVE.—Tel. Chelsea 4000.

S.A. M. to 10 P. M.; Sundays, 2 P. M. to 10 P. M.; Sundays, 2 P. M. to 10 P. M. Yap that are wellnigh perfect. All the budding historian needs is the style of MACAULAY, the intelligent industry of PARRMAN and the philosopbic intellect of FIRE. These, with great energy and a good publisher, will bring about the much desired.

Farmer Ford's Family Flour.

Farmer Foan, who also makes the little motor cars, can raise wheat at its a reasonable cost on his farm, right next door to his automobile works. Grain elevator man Foan likewise can store the wheat cheaply in his elevator on the farm. Miller Forn similarly can grind the wheat into flour economically at his mill in the same

So Farmer - Warehouseman - Miller-Merchant Forn, who also makes the properly occupied region will be re- little motor cars, can sell cheap flour turned to Costa Rica voluntarily by in his own company stores to his own Panama or the United States will employees. At least, it is cheapmake the transfer with whatever ac- $7.80 a barrel-compared with the $10 asked by the retail dealers thereabout, although, at that, it is dear enough,

But could Farmer-Miller Forn ship land now in dispute will go back to his wheat hundreds of miles without paying full freight? Then could he since the United States Government ship his flour other hundreds of miles makes itself permanently responsible without again paying full freight? After that, could he bake the flour It only remains to be said that this into bread without paying the baker's unpleasant affair has been conducted wages? Could he deliver the loaves, with the greatest credit to the State even in Ford motor cars, without pay-Department, both under President ing for the gas, the tires, the drivers for holding the Costa Rican territory pinches. The actual wheat in a loaf in question. Under the United States of bread is negligible. All the labor Government's guarantee of the sover- costs, all the distribution costs, all eignty and integrity of Panama, there the rent costs, all the other costs that was no chance that any wrong she get into a loaf of bread along the road might do to a neighbor might, through from the time the wheat leaves the the fortunes of war, cost her any of Western farm until it comes out of her own territorial possessions. But, the distant metropolitan baker's oven under those very obligations, the on the way to the consumer's dinner United States could not permit Pan- table—that's what makes the price of

German Shipping Coming Back.

of ocean going ships in 1914 aggre- many should again acquire control of gating 4,935 vessels with a total of fully as much as the old 5,240,000 register. At the signing of the armis- same maritime position as in the the United States, not only as the tice in 1918 this fleet was practically prosperous days of her pre-war merintact not having been subject to the chant fleet. submarine blight or even to ordinary ocean hazards. The tonnage seized in the course of the war by the Powers opposed to Germany was more Too Many Dates in History. than counterbalanced by new keels There is a good deal in what the laid down, while the rest of the fleet New York Principals Association says was safely held in German ports or about the faults of history as it is doing what amounted to ferry duty have added so much to the burden sailles, to vest ownership of the whole ch a school child's memory is German fleet in the nations which had been victims of the German sub One of the reforms proposed by the marine campaign. After delivering

Yea, on more than youth; more than two-fifths of the world's their favorite collars, they never cease war 12 per cent. of world tonnage to remember that the date of the was assumed by the United States

"For the present no lines will run from Hamburg, except such as foreign nations may find it worth while to establish out of their surplus tonnage. Germany will have to pay to foreigners for the carriage of her trade such charges as they may be able to exact, and will receive only such conveniences as it may suit them to give her. The prosperity of German ports and commerce can only revive, it would seem, in proportion as she succeeds in bringing under her effective influence the merchant marines of Scandinavia and of Holland."

It may be added that at the time the foregoing was written English, German and American shipping auschool histories. Americans are nat. thorities also believed Germany would cover the United States and Canada. It is not true the May queen wears ural historians. Our real students of fare poorly in obtaining tonnage to The New York State rate was unhistory, most of whom do not plunge carry her commerce. But just the questionably affected by the open

PARKMAN. Also, our historical text chant tonnage and the 95,000 tons erally in this neighborhood. But books have been improving since JOHN left to her out of the 325,000 tons countrywide increase in automobile British Grounds for Intervention for Fisks started the ball rolling about under construction at the close of killings is not to be explained solely twenty-five years ago with his "School the war, Germany has added up to by referring it to the weather. History of the United States." He the end of the first quarter of this used dates plentifully, but they did year an additional 150,000 tons, and fic courts have not interfere with his plan. He put in by the end of next year it is expected tive recently in disciplination the war was fought for. He showed pened to upset previous calculations ing they may be able to second list.

she will have a necessel close to 1,000,000 gross tons.

But this is not all that has happened to upset previous calculations in the man life remains to generally would be able to secure for her commerce. At the end of 1200 there were no less than sixty-seven foreign steamabily lines maintaining to the foreign steamabily lines maintaining to the recular service from Hamburg to the experiment of the activity of the end of 1200 the experiment of the principal countries of the world.

According to H. W. Adams, representing the United States Department of the world of the countries of the world of the three Swedish, two American, two Danish, two Japanese, one Portuguese, one Cuban and five of other nationalities.

The result of the establishment of millions of dollars a year. But, when these lines has been to bring the ar- all is said and done, the cost of the rivals and departures of merchant May Day strikes, figured at a million tonnage at the port of Hamburg, two dollars a day, is only a drop in the Government to resume payment, but to and one-half years after the armistice, up to about 50 per cent, of what to 5,000,000 workers out of employthey were just before the war. The ment because capital and labor have arrivals and departures at Hamburg failed to tackle together in manful in 1913 and since the war are given by Mr. Apams as follows:

Net tons: 1913. 1919. Arrivals. . . 14,185,496 1,543,714 4,537,331 Departures.14,449,026 1,148,701 3,488,638 year the entries and clearings were lars a year. about 25 per cent, of the pre-war total, the following table shows that by the end of February, 1921, the movement was fully half as large as before the war:

Jan., Departures....268,607 573,212 628,137 a half billions of dollars a year.

Two years more of improvement at the same rate as since the armistice up to eight billions, even nine billions shipping in German ports even if the future improvement should be brought about by other than German shipping concerns, as has been the case in the last two years. But it would not be surprising if in the next two or three likewise through increased output by Germany possessed a merchant fleet ownership and charter abroad Gerapproximately 5,240,000 gross tons tons and regain substantially the

"No member of the Legislature shall receive any civil appointment within this State, or the Senate of the United States, from the Governor, the Governor and Senate or from the Legislature or from any city government, during the time for which he shall have been elected."

How gratifying it must be to Mr. PETTE that the District Attorney is a county officer, and consequently not afflicted by a constitutional infirmity which would prevent him from reformed by Mr. Perre in the Legisla-

Death in the Streets.

Highway Protective Association and fatalities against 158 in the correthe country. The Statistical Bulletin of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company for April says:

"Eighty-four lives of policy holders were lost in automobile accidents during the month, with a rate of 7.4 per 100,000. This is high for this time of year.

"On the basis of the mortality during the first quarter, a new max-Imum rate for this cause of death may be expected for 1931. During the winter of the present year the rate has been much higher than for the corresponding period of last year.

"Unless there shall be a pronounced change for the better an increased toll of human life, more especially child life, will be charged to automobile fatalities."

The insurance company's statistics into study until middle age, revel in contrary has been the case. To the winter; in the winter of 1920 it was impracticable to use motor cars gen

In this city the police and the trafan particularly acreckless all the wars—and wars have always she will have a fleet of ocean going automobile drivers. What effect their deal of money. On the basis of the would deter any future British Governannual working days it is, in round numbers, at the rate of three hundred bucket measured against the 4,000,000 fashion the problem of economic readjustment to get this country back from the war inflation basis to a normal. productive, peace basis. Four million employed, without reckoning any other | text to enable that potentate to attemp Improvement in the volume of ship- interest, at an average of $3 a day the ping at Hamburg gathered momentum gigantic total of twelve millions of toward the end of 1920 and still con- dollars a day, or at the rate of more tinues. While for the whole of last than three and a half billions of del-

But there is worse yet. If another 15,000,000 workers are failing to produce on an economic basis-failing, in a word, to earn what they are paid, measured by the new value of what they produce, by an average of say $1 a day, then there is another loss to Net tons: 1920. 1920. 1921. the country of fifteen millions of doi-Arrivals 247,448 644,391 672,778 lars a day and at the rate of four and Put it all together and it may foot three and a half billions of dollars a nomic loss of at least twelve billions of dollars a year.

This country, rich though it be aside the German reparation papers and the map of Yap and preparing a message on the unviolability of American chows abroad.

But it is all over, and with honor for everybody concerned, and partic- Their Average Time to a Game Less ularly for the Argentine Consul resident at the capital of Uruguay. The chow will live, but, says the despatch, "will not set foot on Uruguayan soil." In this he will not be any worse off than do the Giants will no doubt be surthan the European monarchical system. Add the Great Chow Case to the history of diplomacy and let the chow be glad that he did not have to go before the League of Nations.

P. J. SCULLY, like the late JOHN F. AFFARN, held his post as Tammany cader of an East Side district long after the racial makeup of the region The alarming figures of deaths in had changed. He was a good citizen New York State from automobile and an honest official. In his twentygotten. Why WILLIAM found HAROLD the German fleet been swept from the accidents in the four months ended four years as City Clerk no scandal The city will be lucky if it gets an-other man as tactful as Joe Scully to rule the City Clerk's office and Tam-therefore, that the Giants averaged 1 ning for years, but that there would printed in The New York Herald rule the City Clerk's office and Tam-"It is sufficient," says the associa- be no disposition on the part of her Monday, which show that in the many Hall will find it hard to choose "It is sufficient," says the associa-be no disposition on the part of her Monday, which show that in the many Hall will find it hard to choose hour and 58 minutes to a game against a tion, "to know the dates of the begin-opponents in the war to put at Ger- first third of 1921 there were 351 an equally amiable leader for the East hour and 54 minutes for the Yankees. Broadway district.

There are thousands of young men who know that the world has been period." There is one date between provisions Professor John M. Keynes, ing from this cause in all parts of perfectly reconstructed now that J. FRANKLIN BAKER is again at third base.

A May Moving Picture. skate along the upper hall

With more of speed than grace, And count the stairs with chin and n And land upon my face; or soap and suds and pails and And brooms are everywhere, And lo! when I put down my foot I find it is not there.

That throws me good and hard. There's nothing in the house to eat But mutton-bones and lard. The place is damp and full of dust Through which the microbes fly And all the sleeping germs arise

There's sticky varnish in my hair, A kink is in my back, skidded in the vestibule And sat upon a tack.

The symbols of her annual reign MINNA IRVING

Debts Plus Something.

the Benefit of Bondh To THE NEW YORK HERALD: I see the opinion has been expressed that but for the Monroe Doctrine Great Britain and France would intervene by force in Mexico to compel the Government to resume payment of interest, now some anillion dollars a day.

A million dollars a day is a great the experience gained on these occasions

In Egypt in 1882 the aim of British intervention was to protect the Suez Canal. In the case of Guatemala in sent not to compel President Cabrera's prevent it from pledging to other creditors funds already pledged to the foreign bondholders.

Default on the foreign debt was the chief ostensible motive of French inter-vention in Mexico in 1862, but as the chief creditor, the Swiss banker Jecker, became a French citizen in order to give Napoleon III. a reason for interve men out of work means to those un- the default was obviously a mere prethen the growth in both Great Britain Socialist parties absolutely precludes idea of intervention anywhere by either country on behalf of "capitalist

BROMLEY, Kent, England, April 22.

Croquet Spells Trouble. It Tries to Trip the Upright and Makes Friends Quarrel.

To THE NEW YORK HERALD: Whe speaking of croquet, you suggest the possible need in future of a State Croquet Commission, you show true vision. If ever there was a game that tries would restore the 1913 volume of of dollars a year. Add to that the to trip the upright it is croquet. In a National Government's continued war recent number of the North American waste at the rate of perhaps another Review Walter Camp recalls the fact that many years ago croquet promised year and there is a grand total of eco-to become the national pastime, "Inci-dentally," says Mr. Camp, "there is evidence that at the time this game ex-tended throughout every city and village in the country there years not only the normal tonnage could not stand for long a loss of cheating and bitter quarrels than had twelve billions of dollars a year, ever racked families or friends in the

AGATHA SPOOHEN. FLATRUSH. May 8.

Yankees the Speedier.

Than That of the Glants.

TO THE NEW YORK HERALD: Those who grumble because the Yankees seem-ingly take more time to play their games prised to learn that the shoe is on the other foot and that the American Leaguers in the first two weeks of the present season actually took less time to finish up than did their National League rivals. The difference is four game in favor of the American League representatives.

Beginning with the opening games on Wednesday, April 13, up to and including the games played on Wednesday, April 27, two weeks, the Yankees and the Glants each played eleven games. It ook the Yankees 1,252 minutes to play these games, or 114 minutes to a game.

On the other hand it took the Giants The times of games used in figuring these verages were taken from a dally newspaper and presumably were official. These figures may prove a shock to cose who long have harped on the dilafory methods of the Yankees and who wasting time at every game. NEUTRAL. NEW YORK, May 3.

Another Clam Man.

TO THE NEW YORK HERALD: In the nule came slowly down the bill every Friday morning, his resonant ending with the music of the birds: Clams, fine clams, fine clams, I say,

Clams, fine slams, fine clams, I say.
They have just arrived from Princes Ba
The times are hard and money scarce,
I know that very well.
Because I've nothing else to do,
My clams to you I'll sell,
Whoa, Jenny!
Clams, lady? A shilling a peck.

Those were the happy days.

New York, May 3. P. H. W. Apparent Luck.

To THE NEW YORK HERALD: True,

"La Forza del Destino" Has a Revival Daily Calendar

Favorita Company at the Manhattan Follows the Metropolitan and Gives Verdi's Opera.

When Giulio Gatti-Casazza began his excavations among the Verdian catacombs and dug up the bones of "La combs and dug up the bones of "La forza del Destino" he doubtless had no this showed what could be done in the way of preventing illness if organizations would cooperate toward to precipitating a general resurted to perform the following the combs and hope the single process of the following the combs and the following the followi pany, which is enjoying a brief season of slow and the first week of its season. The partons in the first week of its season. The music was all presented in a vigorous manner, with little fuss about delicacies of style of beauty of tone. Most of the singers showed that they had known operatic delication of the sunday of the season of the singers showed that they had known operatic delication of the sunday of the season of the singers showed that they had known operatic delication of the sunday of the season of the sunday of the sunday of the sunday of the season of the sunday of the was held.

Mrs. Arthur Curtiss James, chairman, told the 300 persons present that the eyes of the world now should be focused on China and that the women of that country are looking toward the United States for help. Seventy-five per cent. of the suffering could be prevented, she said, if proper care were taken of the people. The Young Women's Christian fore she returns to this city.

A Philanthropist.

The lavish moon smiled down on every brook

Glowing at midnight like a rose at In lustrous beauty she forgot to look Which lovers made their own. She bent to peep Wherever fragrant gardens lay asleep, And shim'ring silver on their petals shook. chatting with the clouds, she occasionally a tiger visited the place, coming from more distant jungles, while there were plenty of bears and panthers besides pigs and an abundance of small game. Jaum was remarkable for the skilfful trackers of the trbe of Ahads who lived there, and who were always to ready to accompany me in pursuit of game. They had a wonderful aptitude for marking down animals. This was not done by tracking only. The trackers would be out before dawn, and when the sun tinged the eastern sky with pink, like the wing of a flamingo, they would be posted in likely places from which they could observe the prowlers of the heat would make for some suitable spot at the first streak of dawn, and the tracker would follow the animal and mark it down in the shade of bush or rock. The first bear marked down for the day in a clump of bushes on the first streak of the shade of the shade of the shade of the heat, would make for some suitable spot at the first streak of dawn, and the tracker would follow the animal and mark it down in the shade of bush or rock. The first bear marked down for the day in a clump of bushes on the first streak of the shade of the shade of bush or rock. The first bear marked down for the day in a clump of bushes on the day in a clump of bushes on the first streak of the shade of bush or rock. The first bear marked down for the day in a clump of bushes on the first streak of the shade of bush or rock. The first bear marked down for the day in a clump of bushes on the first streak of the shade of bush or rock. The first bear marked down for the day in a clump of bushes on the first streak of dawn, and the tracker would follow the animal and dawn for the day in a clump of bushes on the first streak of dawn, and the tracker would follow the animal and dawn for the day in a clump of bushes on the first streak of dawn, and the tracker would follow the animal and dawn for the day in a clump of bushes on the first streak of dawn.

The clump of the first streak of dawn, and the tracker would follow the animal and dawn Occasionally a tiger visited the place, coming from more distant jungles, while pointed to a lack of the powers of scent or rock. The first bear marked down for me in this manner had lain down for the day in a clump of bushes on the side of a hill. Here he slept soundly while a cordon of beaters surrounded him on three sides from below, while I took up a position on the crest of the hill above. On a given signal there arose a burst of yells from the beaters, and the unfortunate Bruin, hounded from his lair, lumbered grumbling up from his lair, lumbered grumbling up the hillside and emerged from cover to-morrow fair; no change in temperature; increasing east to north winds.

For Eastern New York-Rain to-day;

For New Jersey-Rain to-day; to-morrow fair; no change in temperature; strong northerly winds.

For Northern New England-Rain to-day; fair to-morrow; fresh northeas; winds.

THE WEATHER.

volumes of the "William and Mary Col-lege Quarterly," Williamaburg, 1892-reau stations, taken at 8 P. M. yesterday, 1818, went to F. W. Morris for $72.50.

8 A. M. 8 P. M. 10.05 29.90 84 66 Bouth East 11 .Clear Cloud; None None the plantigrade feet will, at any rate, leave a track where a little soft earth or detritus has gathered in the hollows. day with the men of Jaum. We traced 10 scratched surface, broken glass, and other indications to a jungle filled depression where there were unsavory but unmistakable evidences of his presence. At length a hairy form appeared, and Bruin rushed out and hurried up the Bruin rushed out and hurried up the side of the hill, whereupon a shot from

EVENTS TO-DAY.

the old .500 brought him to a standlikewise through increased output by German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the simply means bleeding to German shipyards and through logid of the Single of the Single of the Single of the Single of Police conference, Hotel Comm

British 518 21/201
Chinese 1,680 10,808
Japanese 1,680 10,808
German 2 673
Norwegian 203 5,803
Swedes 141 5,472
Danes 1113 3,154
Saustian 100 5,671
Saust

MANHATTAN AND THE BRONX.
"Calus Gracchus," by Henry H. Klein
Cooper Institute, Elghin street and Fo

BROOKLYN.

An Efficiency Expert.

To The New York Herald. True, there is no such thing as luck, but there close to me. This bear was one of services, in ourse telling it to a horse when you drive him on an Eric forreyboat behind not not be such that the same many shanson of Rumpus Ridge, Ark., after an extended period of cogitation. "What sort of an idy would it be to paint the baby's face once in a while instead of washing bear across solid rock. The long claws it so often?"

Ridgewood, Lincoln and Nichols avenues.

Stereoption views.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited in this paper, and also the local news the same many points of an idy would it be to paint the baby's face once in a while instead of washing bear across solid rock. The long claws it so often?

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited in this paper, and also the local news the same many points of an idy would it be to paint the baby's face once in a while instead of washing local particles.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches.

BROOKLYN.

"American Figure Painters," by Ernest Knaufft, at Maxwell Training School, Park place, west of Nostrand avenue. Stereopticon views.

"Problem of Land, Labor and Transportation," by Mrs. Mary E. Lease, at Public School 5, Tiliary and Bridge streets, "Markia," by Mise Victoria Hewitt, at Public School 107, Schenectady avenue and Eastern Parkway, Stereopticon views.

"Wonderful Valley of the Amason, Part 2," by J. H. Muirhead, at Public School 171, Ridgewood, Lincoln and Nichols avenues, Stereopticon views.